Hi, I'm Jamie Foxx. 25 years ago Quincie Jones gathered an amazing group of artists and musicians to create "We are the World", written by Michael Jackson and Lionel Richie. I'm so proud to be able to share a new version of that song, with a video by academy award winning director Paul Haggis. Two weeks ago we found ourselves surrounded by a dazzling array of artists of all ages, backgrounds, jobs, but all of whom share a common commitment to take action to help Haiti rise from the rubble and rebuild. As artists we hope that you enjoy the video and join us in this rare simulcast to millions around the world as we ask you to please do more than just watch. Reach deep into your hearts and give anything you can as we have, for Haiti. Whatever you have, no matter how big, how small, it all counts. Thank you so much and enjoy the video

We all need somebody that we can lean on when you wake up look around and see that your dreams gone when the earthquakes we'll help you make it through the storm when the floor breaks a magic carpet to stand on we are the World united by love so strong when the radio isn't on you can hear the songs a guided light on the dark road your walking on a sign post to find the dreams you thought was gone someone to help you move the obstacles you stumbled on someone to help you rebuild after the  rubble's gone we are the World connected by a common bond Love the whole planet sing it along
